

African and Caribbean heritage families of elementary and secondary aged children/youth. Join us for a free workshop!

Knowing Your Rights: An Understanding of Learning Disabilities, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, and the Special Education Process

Date: Wednesday, May 23, 2018

Time: 6:00PM – 8:30PM

Location: Vaughan Secondary School
1401 Clark Ave W, Thornhill, ON L4J 7R4

Learn About:

- What are Learning Disabilities (LDs) and/or Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorders (ADHD)?
- Advocating for children/youth with LDs and/or ADHD.
- Supporting children/youth to gain self-advocacy skills.
- Parent/Guardian rights within the school system.
- Supporting mental health awareness.
- Programs and services to support children/youth & families

Presenters:

Renee Flannery & Stephanie Gatti from the Learning Disabilities Association York Region (LDAYR)

*Free event. Light refreshments will be provided.

*Free child-minding is available upon request.

Please register for this event:

Stephanie Gatti at Learning Disabilities Association of York Region
905 884-7933 ext. 24 or stephanie.gatti@ldayr.org

For more information:

Charlotte Reid at York Region District School Board
905-884-2046 ext. 264 or charlotte.reid@yrdsb.ca

